Course Description

The purpose of this course is to help students gain an understanding of multicultural and social/sociocultural considerations in order to develop the knowledge and skills needed to provide counseling services to special populations. Students will also examine personal aspects of their culture and how these influence their worldviews, beliefs, and biases. This course focuses on culture identity development, social justice/advocacy, spirituality, counseling multicultural populations, and applying counseling theory to multicultural frameworks. Understanding multicultural counseling can assist students in gaining the perspective, techniques, and skills to be able to effectively assist individuals from various cultures and backgrounds. Within this course, students will engage in online lecture-based instruction and experiential activities that emphasizes practical application of the skills learned. Multicultural, ethical, and professional considerations will also be explored within this course. Students will also become familiar with the multicultural standards and counseling considerations in the ACA Code of Ethics.

Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites/corequisites for this course.

Course Objectives

Objectives	CACREP Standards
This course is designed to enable the student to:
1. Identify multicultural and pluralistic trends; characteristics, attitudes, beliefs, and experiences of (and among) diverse groups.
2. Write about cultural self-awareness and an understanding of the historical, political, and institutional influences on the oppression of diverse populations.
3. Identify public policies that affect the quality and accessibility of mental health services and enable effective advocacy for and treatment of diverse populations.
4. Learn about diverse populations and how counseling can best be suited to address the needs of said diverse population. Students will examine counselors' roles in eliminating biases, prejudices, and processes of intentional and unintentional oppression and discrimination toward diverse people.
Students will learn the following CACREP standards:
	Core 2.F.
advocacy processes needed to address institutional and social barriers that impede access, equity, and success for clients	1.e
multicultural and pluralistic characteristics within and among diverse groups nationally and internationally	2.a
theories and models of multicultural counseling, cultural identity development, and social justice and advocacy	2.b
multicultural counseling competencies	2.c
the impact of heritage, attitudes, beliefs, understandings, and acculturative experiences on an individual's views of others	2.d
the effects of power and privilege for counselors and clients	2.e
help-seeking behaviors of diverse clients	2.f
the impact of spiritual beliefs on clients' and counselors' worldviews	2.g
strategies for identifying and eliminating barriers, prejudices, and processes of intentional and unintentional oppression and discrimination	2.h
ethical and culturally relevant strategies for promoting resilience and optimum development and wellness across the lifespan	3.i
	CMHC 5.C.
cultural factors relevant to clinical mental health counseling	2.j

Instructional Methods and Activities

Discussion Board Posts

Due: Weekly

- Initial posts are due Sundays by 11:59 p.m. (no late posts accepted)
- Two responses to others are due Tuesdays by 11:59 p.m.
- Initial posts should be at least 1 paragraph, no more than two and should have a proper in-text citation and reference. The two required responses should be at least 1 paragraph.
- See rubric for specific grading for each discussion board.

Total points: 10 points each x 13 = 130 possible points

There will be nine discussion board posts throughout the semester. Discussion Board topics will be posted in each thread. Rubric for the assignment posted on Moodle.

Learning Objective 1; CACREP Standards 2.F.2.a.; 5.C.2.j

Cultural Self-Assessment

Total Possible Points: 20 points

To increase students' cultural self-awareness, they will complete a cultural self-assessment based on Hays's (2016) ADDRESSING model. The cultural self-assessment is posted on Moodle.

Using a word document, respond to each section as fully as possible. Label each section in bold and then write out your response. Include a cover page on your assignment. The assignment does not have to be double-spaced. You will be graded on the thoroughness of your response not on the response itself. This assignment is to help increase self-awareness and foster growth as a future counselor. It is also the foundation of your intersectionality paper. Assignment must be submitted in word format. Rubric for the assignment posted on Moodle.

Learning Objective 2; CACREP Standards 2.F.2.b.; 2.F.2.d.; 2.F.2.g.; 2.F.3.i.

Intersectionality Paper

Total Possible Points: 30 points

To increase students' cultural self-awareness, they will complete an essay wherein they describe themselves from an intersectional perspective. The responses generated for the Cultural Self-Assessment assignment should prove a helpful starting place. Things students should comment on:

1. What advantages/privileges have you experienced relevant to your cultural influences?
2. What disadvantages/obstacles have you experienced relevant to your cultural influences?
3. Are there cultural influences for which the impact of your dominant/minority status is affected by your status in a different category of cultural influence?
4. Where do you think your growth edges are regarding knowledge of and/or attitudes toward individuals who are culturally similar to you?
5. Where do you think your growth edges are regarding knowledge of and/or attitudes toward individuals who are culturally different from you?

The paper should be three to five double-spaced pages in length (12-point font with 1-inch margins) and conform to the grammatical and style guidelines in the seventh edition of the APA Publication Manual. Must include a cover page (not counted in the required page numbers). Assignment must be submitted in word format. Rubric for the assignment posted on Moodle.

Learning Objectives 2 & 3

CACREP Standards 2.F.1.e.; 2.F.2.b.; 2.F.2.d.; 2.F.2.g.; 2.F.3.i.

Multicultural Counseling Research Presentation

Total Possible Points: 70 points

To increase students' knowledge of multicultural and pluralistic characteristics within and among diverse groups, each student will develop a multi-media presentation regarding a particular cultural group (which they do not currently identify with). The presentation should be approximately 20 minutes in length. You will need ten sources for this presentation (other than your book); 6 must be peer-reviewed and within the last 10 years (2011 to 2021). A word document with references must be submitted along with the presentation. Rubric for the assignment posted on Moodle.

To facilitate maximum growth, the group about which you do the presentation should be significantly culturally different from you. Your presentation should be designed to address the following topics (but are not limited to):

1. Description of the cultural group
 - a. Why you chose to do your assignment on this cultural group
 - b. How they are culturally different from you
2. Characteristics and strengths of the cultural group
3. Specific challenges of the cultural group
 - a. Barriers

- b. Prejudices
 - c. Oppression
 - d. Discrimination
4. Significant historical events related to the cultural group
 5. Implications for mental health counseling, assessment, and/or career counseling
 - a. The effects of power and privilege in counseling this cultural group
 - b. Help seeking behaviors of this cultural group
 - c. The impact of spiritual beliefs on the cultural group's worldview
 - d. Communication style of the cultural group (e.g., eye contact, etc).
 6. Theories / models of multicultural counseling that would help you work with this cultural group
 7. Strategies for elimination of barriers, prejudices, and process of intentional and unintentional oppression and discrimination of this cultural group
 8. Relevant governmental policies/legislation and opportunities for advocacy for the cultural group
 9. Resources for members of this cultural group

Learning Objective 4; CACREP Standards 2.F.2.a.; 2.F.2.b.; 2.F.2.c.; 2.F.2.d.; 2.F.2.e.; 2.F.2.f.; 2.F.2.g; 2.F.2.h.; 5.C.2.j.

Other Policies and Procedures

Attendance Policy : This is an online class so Moodle assignments are required weekly and students are required to check their ULM e-mails daily.

Make-up Policy: There will be no make-up assignments. No exceptions will be made without proof of an emergency that falls within the university excused absence guidelines (<http://bit.ly/1LbMV0c>)

Academic Integrity: Academic Integrity: Faculty and students must observe the ULM published policy on Academic Dishonesty. Please be advised that the university's policy regarding academic honesty is rigorously followed throughout this semester in this class. No cheating will be allowed, and it will be reported. All papers will be checked for plagiarism.

Course Evaluation Policy: At a minimum, students are expected to complete the online course evaluation. Students are strongly encouraged to provide feedback to the instructor about their experience in class and let the instructor know if they need extra support or alternative learning activities.

Student Services: Information about ULM student services, such as Student Success Center (www.ulm.edu/studentssuccess/), Counseling Center (www.ulm.edu/counselingcenter/), Special Needs (www.ulm.edu/counselingcenter/special.htm), and Student Health Services, is available at the following Student Services website www.ulm.edu/studentaffairs/.

Emergency Procedures: (N/A for online courses.)

Discipline/Course Specific Policies: Humor, language, or stories that are offensive, or suggest disrespectful ethnic, racial, gender, religious, or national origin-related biases will not be tolerated. A diverse student body is expected and encouraged in this course. One of the tenets of this course will be an atmosphere of respect and feeling at ease while contributing to the class. Disagreements in opinions are part of the academic endeavor; however, such disagreements must be conducted in civility without sarcasm. I take disrespectful behavior very seriously and thus encourage every student to extend the same respect they wish to receive to everyone else.

Grading and Emailing: Instructor will have assignments graded within 7 days after the due date has passed. Instructor will respond to emails within 48 ULM operating business hours. If 48 hours have passed with no respond, respectfully email instructor again.

Late Policy: No assignments will be accepted after the last day of class. Otherwise, late papers may be accepted at the discretion of the professor with a penalty of 10% decrease in grade per day.

Student Services : The University of Louisiana at Monroe strives to serve students with special needs through compliance with Sections 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act. These laws mandate that postsecondary institutions provide equal access to programs and services for students with disabilities without creating changes to the essential elements of the curriculum. While students with special needs are expected to meet our institution's academic standards, they are given the opportunity to fulfill learner outcomes in alternative ways. Examples of accommodations may include, but are not limited to, testing accommodations (oral testing, extended time for exams), interpreters, relocation of inaccessible classrooms, permission to audiotape lectures, note-taking assistance, and course substitutions.
