Academic dishonesty, attempted or accomplished, in any form is unacceptable at the University of Louisiana at Monroe. If clear physical evidence indicative of academic dishonesty is obtained by Counseling Center staff during the testing process, the staff member will have the authority to immediately confiscate the test as well as the item the student is using to cheat. The incident shall be reported to the instructor for further investigation. If the student is found guilty of academic misconduct (cheating), the instructor will report the incident in writing to the department head and/or associate dean (or other appropriate administrator), who will report the incident in writing to the Office of Student Services in order for an appropriate censure to be determined.
