Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

What are CIP codes? The Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) provides a taxonomic scheme that supports the accurate tracking and reporting of fields of study and program completions activity. CIP was originally developed by the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in 1980, with revisions occurring in 1985, 1990, and 2000 (<https://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/cipcode/Default.aspx?y=55>).

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2018-19. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education–Chemistry" category.

Assessment Pass Rates

The pass rates table is populated from files provided by the testing company or state. The table provides information on the performance of the students in your teacher preparation program on each teacher credential assessment used by your state. In cases where a student has taken a given assessment more than once, the highest score on that test is used. In the case of a teacher preparation program with fewer than 10 scores reported on any single initial teacher credential assessment during an academic year, the program shall collect and publish information with respect to an average pass rate and scaled score on each state credential assessment taken over a three-year period. \(§205\(a\)\(1\)\(B\)\)

Please note that this page does not have an edit feature as the pass rates have already been through several rounds of verification. If you identify an error, please contact Westat's Title II Support Center and your testing company representative.

>> Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program.

(§205(a)(1)(G))

Teacher Training

1. Provide a description of the activities that prepare general education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

ULM undergraduate programs include modules in all pedagogy and methodology coursework that include strategies and interventions for students with special needs, including students who are limited English proficient.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

The course that focuses exclusively on special needs is SPED 2002 (Survey of Education of Children with Special Needs) This course familiarizes students with characteristics of disabilities and accommodation strategies. Students learn about RTI and the referral/IEP process and the role(s) they will play in the process. At the same time students take SPED 2002, they are also enrolled in ELED 3040 (Balanced Literacy) or READ 4019 (Reading for Secondary) or CURR 3002 (Inclusive Instruction for Secondary). These courses and instructors work collaboratively with our PDS to design field experiences in which students provide interventions to students and have opportunities to plan and implement tiered lessons for both special learners and LEP students. Throughout the program, ULM students have opportunities to team teach and to teach individually, preparing them for future interactions with special education inclusion teachers. During student teaching, students have the opportunity to participate with classroom teachers in all collaborative/consultative activities with parents, including IEP meetings. An addition to the curriculum designed to better equip our students to deal with challenging student behavior is SPED 4007 (Differentiated Instruction).

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

The courses described above include strategies for effectively teaching students who are limited English proficient.

2. Does your program prepare special education teachers?

 Yes

 No

If yes, provide a description of the activities that prepare special education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card (see below). The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

The teacher education programs at ULM offer multiple unique opportunities for the students. All students are assigned a personal adviser upon entry to the program and receive readily available assistance in navigating their program. Undergraduates begin their school-based experiences during their first years in the program and participate in increasingly responsible supervised teaching assignments throughout their coursework. Principals have indicated that ULM students walk into the classroom on their first day knowing how to teach. Classes are small, promoting collaboration among students and providing accessibility to mentoring faculty. The program uses a cohort model that is unique compared to programs at other institutions.
